Note to the herald

This ceremony was originally used at the first Court of their Excellencies Gabriel and Constanzia Baron and Baroness St Florian De La Riviere on the 29th of July A.S XXXVI written by Lord William Addemere

1. Check with their Excellencies which parts of the ceremony they wish to speak and which of them shall speak.
2. Ensure to log the business on the court order form.
3. Make sure the tokens are ready and find out who will be holding them.

HERALD:

It is through the workmanship of our talented artisans that the Barony of St Florian de la Riviere gains much renown.

Such talent should not go unrecognised, and it is for this reason the award of the Metier was created, to reward those artisans who, through great craftsmanship and skill have enhanced the reputation and appearance of our Barony and its people.

Let: _____ come before their Excellencies.

(The people come forward)

BARON/ESS:

Those within St Florian de la Riviere who painstakingly apply their skills to all manner of fields within the arts and sciences brings substance to our surroundings and much beauty within our Barony. It is the duty of the Baron and Baroness to ensure due recognition of those who do so.

(Baron/ess may explain specific reasons for the giving of the award)

To this end, we now bestow upon you the award of the Metier, in recognition of your contributions to the Barony.

HERALD:

Given this ____ day of _____, Anno Societatis _____. Giles, Baron of St Florian de la Riviere

Maud, Baroness of St Florian de La Riviere

Three cheers for _____ the newest recipient(s) of the Metier.
